MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

Arizona Corporation Commission

COMES NOW, RESPONDENT Kenneth Mark Deubner, who moves Administrative Law Judge, Marc E. Stern to continue his hearing date, and in support of such motion shows the following:

I.

Respondent is set for an administrative hearing on January 8th and 9th 2003.

II.

As prepared by the Securities Division, Respondent has agreed to sign the Cease and Desist Order, Order for Restitution, Order for Administrative Penalties and Consent to same by Respondent on behalf of Respondent and Non-Stop Shopping.com, Inc.

III.

Respondent must tender five thousand dollars ($5,000) to the Commission at the time he signs the aforestated orders. Respondent will be unable to pay the Commission $5,000 before the date of his hearing. Respondent is owed in excess of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for professional fees that are being held until Respondent's client and a party suing Respondent's client can settle their dispute through mediation or arbitration. The first date that the parties and their respective counsels can mediate is January 8th and 9th 2003. The latest Respondent has a good faith belief it will take to obtain release of Respondent's client's funds is the middle of February 2003.

IV.

Respondent requests a six-week continuance of his hearing date.

V.

This is respondent's first request for a continuance. This motion is made in good faith and not for the mere purpose of delay.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Respondent prays that the Administrative Law Judge grant this Motion for Continuance and reset Respondent's hearing to a later date.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenneth Mark Deubner, Esq.
